22 December 1947.

The Honorable Walter G. Andrews, Chairman
House Committee on the Armed Services
U.S. House of Representatives
House Office Building
Washington, 25, D.C.

My dear Mr. Andrews:

I am in receipt of your letter of 16 December 1947, regarding a proposed meeting between the members of your Committee and myself. I quite agree with you, of course, that it will not be feasible to arrange a meeting prior to the next regular session of the Congress. However, I shall certainly look forward to our being able to get together at your convenience in January.

I also wish to thank you for your kind invitation to have me attend your Committee meetings with the Secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force, and if it is at all possible, I shall be happy to accept. In any event, I shall await your call for any formal meeting between your Committee and myself.

With every good wish for a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,
